

JANUARY 30 IS
FRED KOREMATSU DAY
AN ASIAN AMERICAN & PACIFIC ISLANDER LEGISLATIVE DAY
GEORGIA AAPI TASK FORCE

RE: 2014 Asian American & Pacific Islander Legislative Day at the Georgia Capitol
Commemorating Georgia's Inaugural Fred Korematsu Day

Dear Partner:

The Georgia Asian American & Pacific Islander (AAPI) Task Force invites you to celebrate 2014 AAPI Legislative Day at the State Capitol on January 30, 2014, from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

We anticipate drawing over 150 participants from across the state with goals of the day to raise the visibility of AAPIs in Georgia, educate AAPI communities about the importance of civic participation especially at the state level, and to dialogue and develop relationships with members of the Georgia General Assembly. We will offer advocacy training, opportunity to meet with legislators, group photo opportunity with elected officials, breakfast at the Capitol, and a luncheon at the Sloppy Floyd Building with government speakers. For more program details, please see: www.AAPILegislativeDay-GA.com.

The Day will also commemorate Fred Korematsu, one of our country's greatest Asian American civil rights champions. During World War II, Korematsu, an American citizen, was prosecuted for conscientiously refusing to report to a Japanese American internment camp. It was not until 40 years later that his conviction was overturned in 1983. Rep. BJay Pak will introduce a Resolution declaring January 30, 2014, Georgia's inaugural Fred Korematsu Day. Among other notable speakers, Dale Minami, the attorney who led the legal team to overturn Korematsu's unjust conviction, will provide a Luncheon address.

Today, we are writing to ask for your sponsorship. CPACS is the largest non-profit AAPI service organization in the Southeast, and is a tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization. All donations are tax deductible, and any funds raised expenses costs will be earmarked towards future Georgia AAPI Legislative Days.

Thank you for your consideration. Your sponsorship will contribute to the success of the 2014 AAPI Legislative Day and demonstrate a commitment to continued dialogue with our elected officials. One of our committee members will follow up within a week to answer any questions you may have and to further gauge your level of interest and support. In the meantime, please do not hesitate to contact me: Bonnie Youn, 770-335-0029, or email us at AAPILegisDay@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Youn
